

>> Round 3 <<

Intellectually Challenged

For this round, you'll need the answer sheet that has the names of ten celebrities at the bottom of it. Your quizmaster will read out ten different celebrity copyright, trademark or intellectual property situations. All you have to do is decide whose is whose.

Nothing will double up and there are no trick questions. You should have a rough sheet on which to keep notes if you need, and you can fill in your answers in any order you like.
