The Making Round

Depending on your circumstances, here are a few options for activities or arts and crafts tasks that you can have teams complete while you all take a well earned 20 minute fag/drink/piss break.

- * Design a Platinum Jubilee memorial plate, featuring all of the moments you feel best define Queen Elizabeth's reign
- * Make a card for the christening of the youngest (probably) of Boris Johnson's children, Romy
- * In the style of a court illustrator, draw a sketch that sums up your favourite moment from the Wagatha Christie trial
- * Use plasticine (or make puppets) to illustrate what you think really happened in the photos that the Sun didn't print of Andy Carroll's stag do after party. The essential cast: Andy Carroll, a blonde bar manager, her personal trainer friend and a Newcastle Utd defender...

Suggested Materials: Paper, pencils, felt tips, paper plates, card, paperclips, cocktail sticks, cotton wool, plasticine, glitter, foil, buttons, newspapers
