The Making Round

Depending on your circumstances, here are a few options for activities or arts and crafts tasks that you can have teams complete while you all take a well earned 20 minute fag/drink/piss break.

- * Make a celebrity effigy for the November bonfire – whoever you think deserves to go up in flames in 2023.

- * Using ONLY EDIBLE INGREDIENTS from your kitchen, devise the most unpleasant (but non-lethal) I'm A Celebrity...-style Bushtucker Trial for other teams (and one of your own) to endure. Most inventively unpleasant wins.

- * Create a suitable Welcome Back card for David Cameron.

- * In preparation for the inevitable Netflix collection of crap Xmas romcoms, create a basic outline for the stupidest, most tenuous movie based around a festive song – then figure out your dream casting.

Suggested Materials: Paper, pencils, felt tips, paper plates, card, paperclips, cocktail sticks, cotton wool, plasticine, glitter, foil, buttons, newspapers
